By Paul S. Flaherty

PHOTOGRAPH BY AP/WIDEWORLD

After the massacre in the town of Srebrenica, Bosnia, the blood ties between the victims and the perpetrators were thinning. The massacre, which took place in July 1995, was the worst of its kind in the Balkans since the end of World War II. The victims were mostly Bosnian Muslims, and the perpetrators were Bosnian Serbs. The massacre was a result of the ethnic cleansing campaign in Bosnia, which was led by the Bosnian Serb leader, Radovan Karadzic. Groups ask Yap to quit Cabinet, House run, face plunder rap

MANILA—A coalition of human rights groups and civil society organizations has filed a petition with the Office of the Ombudsman asking for the removal of Sen. Ralph Yap from the Cabinet and the House of Representatives. The groups also filed a plunder charge against Yap, alleging that he misappropriated public funds during his tenure as a congressman.

The petition, filed by the Center for Human Rights and the Philippine Human Rights and Democracy Foundation, seeks the removal of Yap from the Cabinet and the House of Representatives. It also seeks the filing of a plunder charge against Yap, alleging that he misappropriated public funds during his tenure as a congressman.

Kings shuffle Aces, boost semifinal bid

By David H. Johnson
The Kings have shuffled their Aces, boosting their bid for a semifinal berth in the NBA playoffs. The team, which has been struggling since the All-Star break, has moved point guard Steve Nash to the backcourt and forward Kobe Bryant to the frontcourt. The move is expected to give the team more flexibility in their lineup and improve their chances of making the playoffs.

Profiting from the salt of the earth

By [Name] for [Publication]

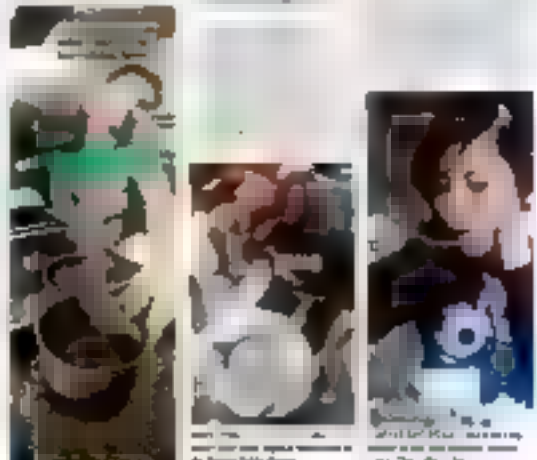

THE SALT OF THE EARTH is a phrase that has been used for centuries to describe people who are honest, hardworking and loyal. But in the world of business, salt has become a commodity that is in high demand. In the United States, the salt industry is worth over $1 billion a year, and it is growing. In China, the salt industry is worth over $10 billion a year, and it is also growing. In India, the salt industry is worth over $5 billion a year, and it is also growing. In the Middle East, the salt industry is worth over $2 billion a year, and it is also growing. In the world of business, salt has become a commodity that is in high demand.

No singing for Ricky Gervais as Globes 2010 host

THE BRITISH COMEDIAN Ricky Gervais will not be singing at the 2010 Golden Globe Awards, a source close to the ceremony has confirmed. Gervais, who hosted the 2009 ceremony, was initially expected to perform a song, but the idea was scrapped due to concerns over his controversial comedy. The source said that the organizers of the ceremony, the Hollywood Foreign Press Association, decided to go with a more traditional host for the 2010 event. Gervais, who is known for his sharp wit and often controversial jokes, had been a popular choice for the role, but the decision was ultimately made by the HFPA. The ceremony will be held on January 16, 2010, at the Pantages Theatre in Los Angeles. Gervais will be replaced by another comedian, but the name has not yet been announced.
